is ever in November, and now he is going to stay up. It is said that he has issued a call for all the reform Democrats to meet on "Lafayette" day, Jan. 8, and take measures looking toward reorganization of the party in this state. This call is sure to receive a great and favorable response, too, for there are no Democrats now heads in Maryland than with the same area anywhere in the United States except, perhaps, in Indiana and Ohio. O man who will gladly join the old guard.

The Tax Court survey in section 1230 of the land between that survey and the lake in a section 10, as well as all lands lying between Washington and Madison streets and the lake, was issued originally in payment of services rendered by one Stephen Gerard to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The survey was made for the hostile Indians in the North American Territory, and, as appears upon its face, is payable upon any public lands of the United States. The survey was made for the benefit of the United States, and are therefore subject to entry by this scrip. The commission received the land, and the holder of the scrip is entitled to the allowance or rejection of the location and adjustment. Argument in support of the petition will shortly be heard. It is the Woman's Industrial League Fair. The attendance at the opening of the fair at the Woman's National Industrial League was good, and more than realized expectation of its friends. At 7 o'clock Mrs. H. W. Blair, of New Hampshire, visited in fair, and for more than an hour addressed the present. She congratulated the women of that party, and said, in a noble voice, "We expect also to have sympathy for the cause, in which they are availing themselves, and promised in the future as he has in the past, to do all in his power to aid them in the accomplishment of their

Mr. Tim Sullivan, whose place of business is at No. 413 Thirteenth street northwest, has a heart as big as a mountain, and while in affliction take care of themselves, he kept an eye to the windward in behalf of the unfortunate. Last night he started a turpentine fire, and realized the danger of the traffic, and in the morning he sent out his turkeys, which will go to relieve those in agony and in want. He is so well pleased at the success of last night that he will repeat the effort to-night, and try to duplicate the work done.

The Columbia Fishing Club enjoyed its last night at Mr. Conrad Becker's house, corner of Fourth and E streets northeast, banquet given by Mr. Becker in honor of the twenty-first anniversary of the club. Dozens of the banquet Mr. Conrad Kauffman presented the host with an excellent portrait of him by Frey. Mr. Becker was only able to say "thank you." Toasts were then offered and the balance of the evening was spent in
